Briefing of Wives of Junior Officer Trainees

- REFERENCES: (a) DTR memo to DD/S, dtd 27 Feb 57, subject as above
(b) D/Pers memo to DTR, dtd 29 Mar 57, subject as above

1. I would be very happy to include in the briefing for JOT wives the wives of other professional employees, if present circumstances permitted. The reasons you suggest for doing so are good; and I believe the objectives which I have stated with respect to JOT wives would apply equally to the wives of many other employees. However, after a good deal of discussion, particularly with the DD/S and the Director of Security, approval was given for the briefing of JOT wives with their husbands. It will be necessary for us to conduct the program on that basis for a reasonable trial period.

2. When we have had some experience with the program, and the advantages of such briefing can be shown, I will be glad to reopen the question of admitting wives of other professional employees.
